FLOATING BATHING PLACES

A floating bathing is a swimming pool immersed in a natural water area

This pool consists in a self-carried structure on which flexible or rigid screens are stretched forming the walls and floor of the pool.

The trick is that the part underwater is weighted; this means that the pool can also surface, which makes the cleaning easier.

The construction consists of:

- wide pontoons act as beach and sunbed
- paddling pool
- one or several large pools

“The new concept of the floating swimming pool is a cost-effective and environmentally friendly solution for safe swimming and water games.”
